

Any increase in the Universal Service fund is a hidden tax on the service in question.

I have to pay a premium price for wireless internet service because the phone and cable companies shun our small community.

Why should I have to pay even more via the USF just so the monopolistic communication utilities can have more of my funds to use as their lawyers decide.